About the Student Work Placement Program (SWPP)

- Initiative funded in 2017 by Employment and Social Development Canada.
- Expanded in 2019 and again in 2020 due to the public health crisis.
- Connects employers, students, and post-secondary institutions.
- Creates (and sustains) quality work-integrated learning (WIL) opportunities.
- Provides employers with wage subsidies to hire students: 75% up to $7,500.
- Gives students quality work experience so they can secure employment in their chosen fields of study.

Healthcare SWPP Placements

- Due to the current public health crisis caused by COVID-19, Employment and Social Development Canada -- the SWPP funder -- has confirmed an additional 1,500 healthcare placements for the Magnet SWPP program:
 1. Any roles supporting healthcare faculties at post-secondary institutions.
 2. Any healthcare role at any organization.
 3. Any role (healthcare or non-healthcare) at an organization working in one of the following healthcare segments.

Criteria for Program Funding

Highlights...

- Employers are registered Canadian business, non-profit, post-secondary institution, hospital, or long-term care facility, committed to paying the student and providing a quality learning experience.
- Students are registered as a domestic student and have a Work-Integrated Learning component as part of their program of study or course.
- Placement cannot be funded by another source of federal funding.
- Full eligibility requirements: <https://swpp.magnet.today/>

Participating in the Magnet SWP Program

Once an application has been submitted, Magnet will review and respond with 1-2 weeks.

Should an application be approved, funding will be conditional on completing the following during and after the placement:

- Signing an employer placement agreement
- Uploading proof of payroll for the student
- Completing a vendor form with Ryerson University for payment
- Uploading the final pay stub issued to the student
- Uploading an invoice for the subsidy amount awarded

On successful completion of these items, the subsidy will be processed within 45 days.

Participating in the Magnet SWP Program

Fall 2020 and Winter 2021 applications are still open.
Summer 2021 to be open in the coming weeks.
